ABOUT NEW CHARACTER SPELLS IV.1 New Character Spells IV.2 About the Character About □□ Is this a Final Fantasy game or an FFXIII game? This is FF7. To be realistic, this is the end product. So it's a FF7 game and is there any chance that it will have a Final Fantasy 7 Online mode or FF7 Online story? I'm not going to lie, I'm really looking forward to it. If they can provide a good Final Fantasy 7 Online mode, it would be great. Will there be a main event? I think the main event would be whatever you decide to call your character's story. Will you want to go through your own main event, or will you want to do side events like "I'm going to kill this bad guy and get the guild to form"? Will the controls be like Final Fantasy 7? At first, I don't think so. In Final Fantasy 7, you would have to use the analog stick to move. In this game, I think the move system is going to be like Final Fantasy X. There will be a D-Pad for your characters to move and you use the left analog stick to move. Will you use a battle system like FFXIII? It'll be an action battle system. It'll be like Final Fantasy Tactics. It seems that there's no way to target with magic. Will there be any kind of targeting system? If you equip a certain weapon to your character, it'll show up a targeting cursor. Will there be a way to change weapons in the field? Like in Final Fantasy V, there won't be any way to change weapons
