It just amazes me that he was apparently assassinated in the year 2011, and then was re-assassinated in 2016. To be sure, if he was slaughtered in 2011, then there ought to be some sign of the wound or what killed him, but there is not, because it has been hidden and left to fester in the minds of those who knew him, and those who don't know him. It amazes me that the people of Georgia set up a commission to investigate this death, and it amazes me how the people are actually believing that such a commission can investigate the murder of a dead man. It amazes me that they are duped into thinking this is all just a game that needs to be played out and that it's just superficial to the government's dealings with Russia and the people of Georgia itself. To be sure, I personally think, that the government killed Mr. Rubel in 2011, and that his re-ass
